AND FACULTY

HARRY LEWIS, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.
Principal

Dedication, patience, understanding, and willingness to counsel students have earned for Dr. Lewis the respect and admiration of the student body. He likes to get to know his school population and is often seen mingling with students during lunch periods, sitting in during classes, and occasionally displaying his fine skill in mathematics by teaching trigonometry to a physics group or conducting a class in geometry. The high academic and cultural standing and the mass "togetherness" of the student body can be partly attributed to the efforts of our principal.

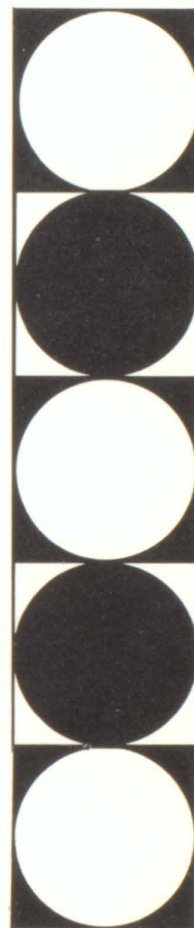

We, the class of 1970, extend our sincere appreciation to him for all that he has done for us and for the entire student body.

MISS THERESA S. DAVID, B.A., M.A.
Vice Principal

Our vice-principal is proud of Arts High and we are proud of her. She is not only an efficient, competent and hard-working administrator, but also a friendly and patient individual. Her versatility, good judgment, hard work, and skill in handling students' problems are indicative of the highly efficient fashion in which she performs her daily tasks. Her sincere interest and dedication are apparent in her participation in most of our school activities.

Miss David has a strong sense of responsibility to others and gives unselfishly of her time and herself. The understanding, inspiration and encouragement we so often needed, she has always provided. We constantly confide in her and never hesitate to ask her for help with our problems. Her confidence in us and her foresight have helped us to maintain our steady progress towards the successful attainment of our high school goals.

MR. WILLIAM L. PICKETT
B.M., M.M.
Music

We, the Senior Class of 1970, take pleasure in dedicating our yearbook to two outstanding educators.

This year, after many years of service to both students and faculty members at Arts High, Mrs. Donovan, girls' gym and health teacher, has a life of leisure.

In many ways, she has earned the respect and admiration of her students and her co-educators. Besides being a teacher to whom any student with a problem could turn, she also served as a guidance counselor. The Girls' Volleyball Club and the Modern Dance Club were both started under her leadership and she was an active member of the school's Cooperative Council.

Among her other student activities was the supervision of the "baked goods department" of the Winter Fair. Using the boys' and girls' gyms as her "base of operation", she planned meticulously and organized and directed the operation so skillfully, that we always had a financial success. She was also in charge of our yearly Internation Day luncheons.

But most of all, Mrs. Donovan has always expressed her extreme concern for, and deep faith in the student body here at Arts High School. If there could be any one thing that we at Arts will miss, it would undoubtedly be Mrs. Donovan's optimism. She believed and still believes in "our generation" and we appreciate her confidence in us.

During the time that Mr. Pickett was director of the Arts High Chorus, musical perfection was the goal of the Chorus. His extensive knowledge of music and his highly individual style of conducting brought the chorus to greater heights of success with each performance. Mr. Pickett's subtle sense of humor and easy-going nature won him the respect and friendship of both faculty members and students alike.

Unfortunately, Mr. Pickett is no longer a member of the Newark School System. He resigned to accept a position at Millburn High School. Although he is no longer with us, he'll always be a part of the Arts High family.

I N M E M O R I A M

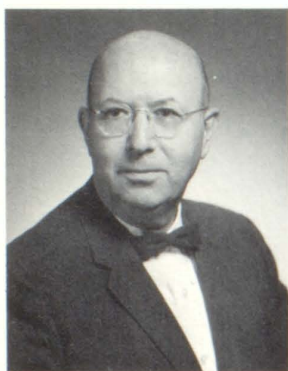

MAX CHIMACOFF, B.A. • English

The Senior Class of 1970 would like to express its regret at the passing of Mr. Max Chimacoff on December 1, 1969. He had been a teacher at Arts High School for many years.

His fine character and personality earned for him the respect of all students who were associated with him in any way. His friendly and courteous manner and fine clothes distinguished him as a gentleman. A learned man, Mr. Chimacoff spoke unusual languages including classical Greek and Latin. As a teacher, he spent a great deal of time teaching outside of the classroom as well as in it, giving his English and Latin students additional help.

His death was a great loss to the students and to the Newark School System, for he was truly dedicated not only to teaching but to his students and to the school.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

As a Senior Class advisor, Mr. "G" motivates and stimulates us to participate in all class activities and has made us realize the value of a firm and resourceful guiding hand.

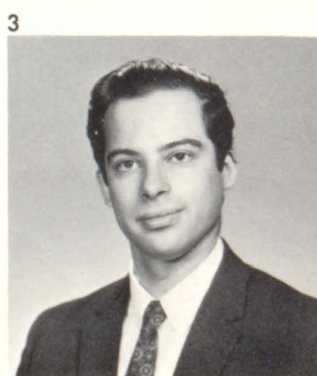

As a teacher, Mr. Gentile has the skill and know-how to challenge his students and creates a real atmosphere for learning.

As an individual, his personality and his ability to blend in with every scene from a rocking discoteque to a quiet study hall have earned him a special place in the hearts of all Seniors.

Mrs. Benevento, born in Italy, attended the Academy of Fine Arts in Naples for one year. He then came to the United States and attended Arts High. Upon graduation he received a scholarship from the New Jersey Art Directors Club and went on to Cooper Union, where he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. He has also attended Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art, and the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School. As a professional artist Mister "B" has had two fine one-man shows. He has maintained great interest in the students, not only academically, but socially and individually. This interest accounts for his great work with the Senior Class.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

BLACK CULTURE CLUB

The Black Culture Club is one of the newly formed clubs of 1969-1970. Its purpose is to explore the place of the black man in America and to establish his relationship with his African heritage. Members enjoy programs about music, dances, literature and art as well as films, records and slides. The club is under the direction of Miss Cutts.

BAND

The Concert Band is a vital part of the Arts High music world. The entire group performs in the annual winter and spring concerts. Smaller groups appear before and after assembly programs and at various elementary school programs. Mr. Ruben Singer, their extremely capable conductor, practices with his group quite often to obtain the superb sound that the Concert Band is noted for.

BOWLING

The Arts High Girls' Bowling Team began its league program on March 24, 1970. The girls bowl every Tuesday for eight weeks. The purpose of the bowling team is to work for the goals of bettering their competitive abilities and improving bowling techniques. The team is comprised of twelve girls. Some of the girls had never bowled before joining the team and have already shown signs of improvement. Of the twelve girls, five are from last year's team, two had never bowled before, and the other five are bowling close to the professional five of last year. Many of the girls show great promise of becoming professional bowlers, if they desire.

BEVERLY BRANCH

CHORUS

The Chorus, directed by Mr. Robert Howard, a new addition to the Arts High faculty, is one of the largest groups in the school. These students perform on many occasions during the year, including the winter and spring concerts. They sing a variety of songs in many different languages. This year, they presented Josef Haydn's "Creation" in its entirety. The Chorus is invited to perform at various places, including the Kiwanis Club. Judging from the caliber of the performances, Mr. Howard has achieved excellent results with his students.

DANCE CLUB

Girls execute the Israeli "Hava Nagilla."

The Dance Club, capably supervised by Mrs. Tso is one of the most active clubs in the school and in the community. It takes concentration, determination, and art skill to master the terpsichorean art. Months of hard work are devoted to learning Ukrainian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish, Philippine, African, and Yugoslavian folk dances. After learning these dances, the members perform not only in our own school but at numerous assembly programs in schools throughout the city. Mrs. Tso is always looking for prospective members. Students each year audition for membership, and only those with the greatest potential are selected.

THREE DIMENSIONAL ART CLUB

The 3-D Art Club meets once a week under the direction of Mr. Carden, an art teacher, here at Arts High. Requirements for membership are an open mind for criticism and a desire to learn about and experience art. It makes no difference whether one is an art major or a music major. The student learns all the beauty of working with materials other than paints or paper and many unusual and interesting pieces of art work are the final products.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Perhaps one of the most inspiring sections of the Arts High Music Department is the Girls' Glee Club. These girls work twice a week after school to prepare for the winter and spring concerts. Each year the girls seem to develop a more professional sound. Because of limited rehearsal time, some proficiency in both vocal work and sight reading is required. This year under the superb direction of Mrs. Shapiro, the girls plan to perform the Academy Award winning song "Born Free", "Love Lost for Aye" by Brahms, "Calm as the Night" by Bohm and a medley of songs from "The Sound of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

LAB ASSISTANTS CLUB

The main purpose of the Lab Club is to assist the laboratory teacher in performing experiments for the benefit of the students. Members learn good techniques, and the proper lab procedures under the direction of Mrs. Venskus. Most of these students plan to further their studies in science and some will undoubtedly seek careers in this field.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

The Junior Orchestra is made up of students who are not yet competent enough to play in the Senior Orchestra, but enjoy playing and want the very valuable experience of playing in public. Under the baton of Mr. Tobia, the Junior Orchestra practices very diligently and performs in the Winter and Spring Concerts. Many of the members ultimately become members of the Senior Orchestra.

FENCING

This year after an absence of fifteen years Arts High entered as a competitor in the sport of fencing in the City League. In 1967 fencing was renewed as a club activity and for two years the members learned the basic skills of fencing and gained experience needed for entering into competition. This year's coach was Mr. Robert Lippert whose coaching helped the team develop the skills necessary for competition.

The team had a membership of nine, six of whom made up the Varsity Team. Most of the members are juniors whose experience this year will be helpful in making next year a successful one. The record for the year was two wins and twelve losses. As the team grows in size and experience, they hope to achieve a more impressive record.

LIBRARY GUILD

The members of the Library Guild perform many valuable and useful services under the very competent direction of Miss Friedman, our librarian. Some of their duties include shelving books, typing and filing of catalog cards, processing new books, as well as many other lesser tasks. Each member of the guild gains valuable experience in library techniques, and knowledge of the many functions of the library.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

One of the most treasured and outstanding traditions of Arts High School is the M. Bernice Hamilton Chapter of the National Honor Society. Early in the Spring of each year those juniors and seniors who have maintained a high degree of scholastic excellence, and possess outstanding qualities in the fields of service to the school, character and leadership, are inducted into the Society at an elaborate ceremony.

Each member pledges to maintain the high ideals of the Honor Society and must further assume various responsibilities pertaining to projects and programs sponsored by the school or the Honor Society. The Honor Society is under the competent supervision of Mrs. Cahn.

"Say Cheese".

ORCHESTRA

Under the supervision of Mr. Benevento, the photography club is invariably developing new and interesting photographic techniques. One of their main functions is to capture the very special moments of Arts High's life in photographs and to handle the artistic layouts for the Vignette. The students also help with the cover design for the yearbook.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Chico Doughtie, Timothy Byers, George Rossi, Roger Tucker, Calvin Jones, Ronald Hasan.

Under the very capable baton of Mr. Pesile, the orchestra strives for the greatest amount of musical perfection possible. Its members include those instrumentalists who are able to meet the rigid requirements of high musicianship. The orchestra plays numbers ranging from the truly classical to jazz numbers that have been orchestrated. The orchestra performs several times during the year at assemblies, concerts, and other programs presented by the Music Department.

STAGE CREW

The Arts High Stage Crew members, under the careful supervision of Mr. Marcus, have the responsibility of setting up and striking sets for each assembly or special program. Their talents range from electrical and carpentry skills to the rigging and actual maintenance of the stage. Through on the job training the boys acquire skills which will be useful in later life. Despite their many tasks the boys remain "invisible actors" always on hand in case anything goes wrong.

SCIENCE CLUB

The FSA chapter is chartered by the National Science Teachers' Association. The purpose of the club is to learn about science and science careers; to develop the qualities of personality, character and leadership essential to scientists; and to demonstrate to responsible community leaders the necessity for and possible ways of decreasing air pollution, improving sanitary conditions, introducing more effective educational programs, etc. The members plan to pursue careers in science or to gain a greater knowledge of this subject. Mrs. Mary Venskus is the advisor for this group.

Sharon Suber, Bernita Robinson, Astrid Ferzst, Wilford Lowther, Mrs. Venskus, Sharon Doughtie, Monica Hand, Carrie Quattlebaum, Eric Wilkerson.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mayor Walter Hall, Mrs. Pearl Rich (Faculty Advisor), Deputy Mayor Lawrence Hamm.

This was a term of change and hard work for our school government. Under the guidance of Mrs. Rich, Council advisor, and through the organizational abilities of school Mayor Walter Hall, this year's council got things done. But this would not have been possible without the cooperation of the entire Council, officers, committee chairmen, homeroom representatives, and students.

Breaking away from tradition, Council meetings have been held in the mornings. For student enjoyment the Council held dances, pep rallies, arranged bus rides to the basketball games, and was allowed to arrange a number of assembly programs. A "beautifying the school" campaign was launched in which trash cans were painted; book shelves placed near the cafeteria entrance; paintings hung in the hall; and mirrors installed in bathrooms. Other projects included replacing the third floor hand railing which had been broken two years ago.

CAPTAIN ROXANNE WILLIAMS

Twirlers are an enthusiastic interested group of girls who meet twice a week at 7:30 in the morning from September until the end of March. They have a love for the spinning silver shaft and work hard to master the skill and art of baton twirling and marching. Miss Abos works with this enthusiastic crew.

PEP SQUAD

RED CROSS CLUB

In the Red Cross Club, under the expert guidance of Mrs. Hiller, the students are made aware of human needs, are encouraged to take the initiative, and are trained in health and safety practices. They learn about the responsibilities of good citizenship and how to put ideas into action by carrying out projects and programs they help to plan. Services, such as giving clothing to needy families, designing colorful place mats for veterans hospital, and providing various treats for the day nurseries, are among their many activities.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

The Girls' Volleyball Club met with Mrs. Donovan every Tuesday afternoon in the Girls' Gym. With an attendance of approximately 12, they divided into two teams and played each other. Robin Ratiner, the only Senior, and Beverly McNeil were the two captains. Awards were given to outstanding players.

The Vignette Staff under the very capable guidance of Miss Abos and Mr. Benevento, endeavors to prepare an annual publication for the Senior Class. Staff members are those people who are willing to write, type, proofread, design artistic layouts, take photographs and perform the myriad tasks necessary to prepare the book for publication. The Vignette Staff begins early in September and all work diligently to meet the deadlines.

The green phantom strikes again.

BASKETBALL

Basketball has always been Arts High's most popular sport and this year was no exception. The team had 14 members who worked diligently to have a successful year. The boys won 7 of their 13 games and lost 6.

They received fine student support evidenced by spectators at the various games and there was even a Pep Rally given in their honor to boost morale and promote school spirit.

The experienced coaching of Mr. Diaco, much patience, and teamwork were instrumental in their being invited to participate in the State Tournament. For awhile it was doubtful the team would make it because of game cancellations caused by the teachers' strike. Next season the team is going to suffer with the loss of 10 of its outstanding senior players who graduate in June. This was a good year and time will tell what the future has in store for the team.

"You can tell by the expression on their faces that somebody mentioned 'hard work'."

Mike Berardi — captain and high scorer of the Physical Fitness Team.

The main purpose of the Fitness Club is to keep the members therein physically fit. They achieve this end through working out on the apparatus and through various other forms of gymnastics. Mr. Lang is the advisor of this club. Each year the boys achieving the highest Marine Fitness Test scores go to Newark State College to compete with other boys from all over the state. Last year the boys placed in the final competition.

"So that's why we've been losing."

Soccer is one of the first sports of the school year and the team plays through some rough weather. Undaunted, the boys work hard to have a successful season.

Although they had tough practice sessions and great coaching by Mr. Alamo, the team had a rough year. Their record for the year was 3 wins and 9 losses.

Since a good many of the team's members are juniors, experience gained this year will really be useful next season. There were 18 enthusiastic members on the team this year who should be given awards simply for the effort they put forth.

The Swimming Team had a good year. In spite of the fact that swimming isn't too popular a sport, there were thirteen members. These thirteen members went all out to end their season with a record of three wins and three losses. They might even have had a better season but four of their meets were cancelled because of the teachers' strike. The three most outstanding swimmers, Donald Mobley, Richie Battle, and Calvin Collier are underclassmen, so next year may prove to be a very successful one. All things considered, Arts High's Swimming Team has had a good year and they topped it off by taking a fourth place in the City Championship Meet! The coach, Mr. George Landers, new to the faculty at Arts, is a member of the Guidance staff.

Under the competent guidance of Coach Flaherty, the Tennis Team, which this year welcomes five new players, can be found practicing earnestly at West Side Park. Steve Halpern serves as co-captain and first singles man this year, with Roger Tucker and Don Leskiw second and third singles, respectively. Doubles players are Ronald Fladger, C. L. Deeds, Tim Byers, John Pope, Kelvin Clarke, and Eddie Bright. The tennis season for this year looks very promising for Arts and they will most likely place 4th in the City's tournament.

Dennis Hall tries a practice jump.

George Piza works out at School Stadium.

This year's track team is one of the largest ever. There are approximately 35 members on the team. They start practice early in March to get into shape for their meets.

In spite of the fact that the team loses more meets than it wins, the number of points by which they lose gets smaller each year. This year is no exception. The reason for the improvement is that more young men come out each year and work extremely hard under the expert guidance of Mr. Marcus, who has coached the team for a number of years.

This year an Arts High alumnus, Steven Barnes who now attends Rutgers, has returned to assist Mr. Marcus. He has been a valuable asset since the team is still without an assistant coach.

Arts High took a 7th place in the City Championship Meet and beat Vailsburg! We're moving up!

Captain Dennis Hall runs the 120 yard high hurdles.

Paul Smith shows his Pole-Vaulting technique.

Shot Put follow through.
